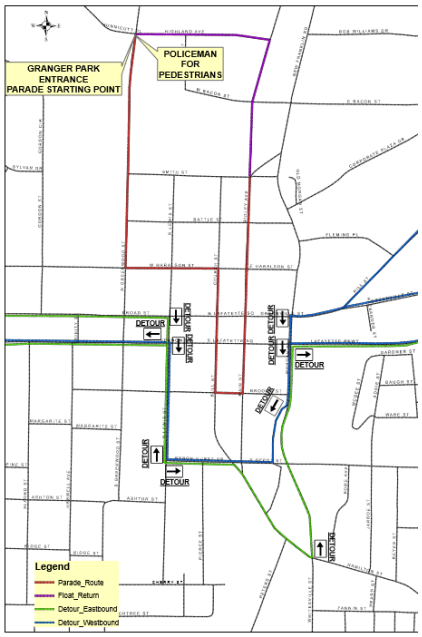
Street Closures Planned for 2019 Christmas Parade, LGTV to Carry Parade Live

LaGrange, Ga. December 4, 2019 – The City of LaGrange wants to advise citizens several streets will be closing in anticipation of the 43rd annual Christmas parade in downtown LaGrange Thursday, December 5th.

The parade will begin 6:00 p.m. but the streets will be closed starting at 5:45 p.m.



Street Closures Planned for Christmas Parade

The LaGrange Christmas Parade 2019 is hosted by the LaGrange-Troup Chamber of Commerce. This year's theme is "Children's Christmas Stories."

Long-time community leader and former Troup County School System Superintendent Dr. Roy Nichols will serve as the Grand Marshal. Nichols and LaGrange Mayor Pro Tem Jim Arrington will turn the lights onto the large Christmas tree located on the Chamber's Pavilion at 5:30 p.m.

The City of LaGrange's television station LGTV will be carrying the parade LIVE on Facebook at facebook.com/lgtv.org and on Spectrum/Charter Channel 181.
