“I hope the community will join me for this special evening to unite our community and invest in our future – our young people,” said Mayor Willie T. Edmondson. “We also want our young people to know we support them and what better way to do that than to provide toys and scholarships. I can’t think of a better time to host this wonderful cause than during the holiday season. We invite the entire community to join us in celebrating our young people!”

Mayor Edmondson also intends to honor former mayors and councilmembers who have served the City of LaGrange.
