Dion Senn Named City of LaGrange Public Services Director

LaGrange, Ga. April 10, 2018 – Dion Senn has been named the City of LaGrange Public Services Director effective immediately.

Senn named Public Services Director

Senn has been employed with the City of LaGrange for over twenty years. For the past seven years, he has worked as an Engineering Project Manager.

As the Public Services Director, Senn will oversee the City of LaGrange’s Vehicle Maintenance, Sanitation, Wastewater, Streets, and Landscape divisions.

“Public Services is critical to our quality of life here in LaGrange,” stated City Manager Meg Kelsey,

“These departments are not in the forefront of our minds, but they have a large impact. Dion brings vision and common sense to projects around town, broad expertise, and a proven commitment to strengthening city operations.”

“I am humbled and honored to serve the City in this new role,” said Senn.

“I am excited to lead the hardworking and knowledgeable employees of the Public Services department.”

Senn holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from LaGrange College and multiple certifications.
