LaGrange Firefighters Respond to Structure Fire at 305 Revis Street, Six Firefighters Injured

LaGrange, Ga. September 3, 2018 – Monday September 3, 2018 at 2:50 am, LaGrange Fire Department responded to a structure fire at 305 Revis Street.

The family living in the home escaped unharmed. The Red Cross was on the scene assisting the family.

While conducting firefighting operations, six LaGrange firefighters received injuries.

Four firefighters sustained severe burn injuries and were transported to Grady Hospital in Atlanta. Pete Trujillo and Jordan Avera received second degree burns. Jonathan Williamson and Josh Williams sustained third degree burns.

Two firefighters, Jim Ormsby and Sean Guerrero received minor injuries.

While inside the house, the fire flashed and the four firefighters Trujillo, Avera, Williamson, and Williams had to jump through the windows to escape the 1200 degree fire.

The City of LaGrange wants to thank the Atlanta Fire Department for their support. They visited the LaGrange firefighters at Grady Hospital in Atlanta.

“Today is a sad day for the City of LaGrange family. This fire severely wounded four of our brave firefighters,” said LaGrange City Manager Meg Kelsey

“When I visited each of the firefighters in Atlanta I was amazed at the upbeat and positive attitudes of these men and their families. I urge you to keep the Avera, Williams, Williamson and Trujillo families in your prayers.”

The origin and cause of the fire is currently under investigation.
