

News Release
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
April 3, 2018

Mayor to Recognize Troup County Senior Corps Program for National Service Recognition Day

LaGrange, Ga. April 3, 2018 – Mayor Jim Thornton will be honoring the Troup County Senior Corps Program today at 11:00 a.m. in honor of National Service Recognition Day.

The proclamation will be read by the Mayor on the steps of City Hall, 200 Ridley Avenue.

The Troup County Senior Corps Programs hosts two programs including the Senior Companions and Foster Grandparents. The Troup County Senior Corps volunteers known as Senior Companions assists and care for the elderly whereas the Foster Grandparents tutor and mentor students.

The programs' funding agency; the Corporation for National and Community Service (CNCS), engages in millions of Americans in service through Senior Corps. The Senior Corps are Americans age 55+ who use their experience and wisdom to volunteer and make a difference in their communities.

WHO: Troup County Senior Corps Program

WHAT: Mayor will read Proclamation

WHEN: Today, April 3rd, 11:00 a.m.

WHERE: LaGrange City Hall steps, 200 Ridley Avenue, LaGrange, GA

For more information on National Service Recognition Day go to www.NationalService.gov/RecognitionDay.

For more information on Senior Companions and Foster Grandparents programs go to www.nationalservice.gov/resources/senior-corps.

Media Contact: Carla Heath, District Four Public Health County Operations Manager, (770) 305-5244 or Carla.heath@dph.ga.gov

To keep up with the latest news involving the City of LaGrange, go to www.lagrangega.org or follow us on Facebook at facebook.com/lagrangegov, Twitter at @lagrangegov, & Instagram at instagram.com/cityoflagrangega.

###